

Delhi Book fair, 2020, from 30th October, 2020 to 31st October 2020

Capexil under the auspices of Ministry of Commerce & Industry, Govt. of India is organizing Delhi Book Fair, 2020, Virtual event from 30th October, 2020 to 31st October 2020 in association with the Federation of Indian Publishers. This is the first initiative to bridge the gap between Indian products and demand for Books, Publications, Printing & Rights across the globe in the post-pandemic era and thereby would like to contribute a bit to mitigate the international business and expand our exports.

The world is harnessing technologies like never before, changing the way in our everyday lives. This year, Delhi Book Fair 2020 will look a little different too. For the first time ever, this exciting event will be held virtually!

What won't change is the pioneering insights, ground-breaking and invaluable networking. Business opportunities for Books, Publications, Printing & Rights across the World, that is what we expect from this event.

We are pleased to inform your good self that the Delhi Book Fair is a wonderful and a big event to showcase the different kinds of books (ranging from kids to adults, science to philosophy, non-religious to religious, knowledge to comics) which gives us tremendous knowledge to lead our life. It is a great opportunity to connect with the Books, Publication & Printing fraternity across the world at one platform and we can correlate this event with below capsulated points:

Discover~ visionary and interactive breakout sessions

Bond ~ with peers, partners and our community of experts

Find-out~ about innovative end to end solutions and business opportunities through this event with our leading publications
